2. As you know, [REDACTED] is assigned to the Armed Forces Staff College course commencing in September 1958. I have no nominations for later courses in the Armed Forces Staff College at this time. As I have previously indicated to you, it is my opinion that the Office of Communications would benefit by enrolling officers in the Armed Forces Staff College and now the War College, but I do not believe material benefit would accrue from attendance at the other institutions and in the other courses listed in your memorandum.

3. I am attaching herewith a biographic sketch on [REDACTED] who is currently assigned as Chief, [REDACTED] with Headquarters in [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is due for relief and rotation to Headquarters in July 1959. He is one of my outstanding senior officers and it is my intention that [REDACTED] serve in a key position in the Office of Communications following the completion of the course for which he is recommended above. In this connection, the content of the course at the National War College and the associations he will establish at the school will, I believe, greatly aid this office and the Agency in the future.
